FOLK HOGAN releases new CD on April 10

Folk punk band FOLK HOGAN to release second album, The Show, on April 10 at Urban Lounge.

Salt Lake City, Utah – Utah-based folk punk band FOLK HOGAN is excited to announce the release of their much anticipated second album, “The Show” on Friday, April 10 at Urban Lounge (241 South 500 East, Salt Lake City).

FOLK HOGAN, a six-piece high velocity folk punk band with a lively stage show that is widely appealing and downright awesome, “plays with an intensity that is almost exhausting to watch,” says Kelly Cannon of City Weekly. FOLK HOGAN brings to the stage a mix of experienced entertainers, humor, and whiskey that will keep a crowd dancing while wishing they had a backup liver. Their sets are always high energy, full of sing-a-long drinking songs and an unapologetic whiskey-soaked naughtiness that Richard Barry of Doldrums Entertainment describes as “like watching a pirate super hero group.”

“The Show” is an entertainingly fanciful concept album featuring 15 new tracks by FOLK HOGAN. The masterful storytelling takes the listener on an imaginative journey with a travelling circus full of diverse characters, including a controlling ringmaster, a romantic beast, a vengeful fire breather, a mutinous band of freaks, and many more. While the album is best experienced in its entirety, each song is an amazing stand-alone tale of its own. All songs on “The Show” were written by FOLK HOGAN with the exception of “Freak Show” which was written by Julia “Box” Sullivan in collaboration with FOLK HOGAN.

“The Show” was recorded and mixed at Salt Lake Recording Service by Brad “Mayor Balls” McCarley and mastered at Man vs. Music by Mike Sasich.

The character artwork for “The Show” was created by Wade Bray with disc artwork designed by Toe McKinley and graphic design and artwork layout by Patrick Patno.
